

Dane Neufeld is a contemporary guitarist working primarily in the styles of jazz, blues, rock, and other popular music. Dane is from Winnipeg, MB and is currently based in Brandon, MB, where he is completing his Bachelor of Music in Jazz and Contemporary Popular Music Performance for guitar at Brandon University.

Dane has performance experience in both cities, playing at clubs and restaurants with R&B/jazz group Friday Kitchen, and other jazz ensembles. He also performed at Brandon's Salamander Music Festival in 2023 with groups Friday Kitchen and Flamenco on the Prairies. Beyond collaborative ventures, Dane serves as an Artist in Healthcare at the Brandon Regional Health Centre, performing solo guitar.

Dane has gained industry experience working backstage at Brandon University and Nasco, setting up professional concerts and large-scale productions like WWE. He has also served as a guitar tech and music festival organizer, underscoring his diverse contribution to the industry.

