

Dylan Pilcher is an emerging artist and trumpet player currently residing in Brandon, Manitoba. Dylan's trumpet playing is inspired by the likes of Miles Davis, Terumasa Hino, Kenny Dorham, Woody Shaw, and others, giving form to a virtuosic and fiery improvisational style, while still fostering his sensitive and sympathetic side. Dylan has performed with top Manitoban and Canadian artists such as David Braid, Greg Gatién, Ariel Posen, and The Retro Rhythm Review, performing at events such as the Winnipeg Jazz Festival, Whoop and Holler music festival, Salamander Music Festival and Table for 1200. Aside from his commercial interests, Dylan also heads several different personal projects such as fusion-RnB group Friday Kitchen.
